

Charlotte J. Nash
Chairman, Gwinnett County Board of Commissioners

Charlotte J. Nash was first elected Chairman of the Gwinnett County Board of Commissioners in March 2011. She was president of a governmental consulting firm and had served in Gwinnett County government for 27 years, including nine as the appointed County Administrator.

She has served on the Gwinnett Recreation Authority, the Atlanta Regional Commission, and the Transportation Investment Act Roundtable among many others. The Atlanta Business Chronicle named her one of the 100 Most Influential Atlantans in 2011 and 2012, and Georgia Trend included her as one of the 100 Most Influential Georgians in 2013. Charlotte and her husband, Michael, have two grown children and two granddaughters.